

Colas Ireland Cookie Policy

At Colas Ireland we want to ensure that your visit to our website is smooth, reliable and as useful to you as possible. We use cookies and similar technologies (“cookies”) to help us improve the use and functionality of the Website and to better understand how visitors use the Website and the tools and services offered on it. Accepting cookies from this site may enhance your experience. If you continue without changing your settings, we'll assume that you are happy to receive all cookies used on our website. However, if you would like to, you can change your browser's cookie settings at any time please see below.

1. What is a cookie?

Cookies are small data files that are stored in your web browser on your computer, tablet or smartphone (each a "Device") when you visit a website. Cookies serve a number of purposes like letting you navigate between pages efficiently, remembering your preferences, interests or log in details, and generally improving your experience. They cannot be used to identify you personally.

2. What cookies do we use?

Google Analytics:

Performance cookies, which are sometimes called analytics cookies, collect information about your use of this Site and enable us to improve the way it works. For example, performance cookies show us which are the most frequently visited pages on the Site, allow us to see the overall patterns of usage on the Site and help us record any difficulties you have with the Site.
